1. Eighty Soviet citizens have already left Mukden for Harbin and two hundred more will soon depart. The route taken is as follows:

By train from Mukden to Hsinmin (122-35, 41-57).

By horse cart from Hsinmin to Changwu (122-30, 42-52).

By train from Changwu to Tungliao (122-14, 43-38) to Liaoyuan (123-30, 43-30) to Taonan (122-47, 45-21) to Angangchi (123-50, 47-13) to Harbin.

The trip takes five days and all of it except twenty miles is made by rail.

2. In order to be allowed to proceed from Mukden to Hainmin, Soviet citizens obtain exit visas for Tientsin. At Hainmin they are met by a Chinese Communist guide, who leads them to Communist-occupied territory. The Communists show the travelers every courtesy and do all in their power to expedite their trip from Changwu to Harbin.
